A reprint of the 1914 issue

The heart of God yearns over his earthly children with a love stronger than death. In giving up His son, He has poured out to us all heaven in one gift. The Saviour's life and death and intercession, the ministry of angels, the pleading of the Spirit, the Father working above and through all, the unceasing interest of heavenly beings are all enlisted in behalf of man's redemption. –Ellen G. White

February

Christ came to earth and stood before the children of men with the hoarded love of eternity, and this is the treasure that through our connection with him, we are to receive, to reveal, and to impart...

(EGW, Our Father's Care, p. 55)

Our Lord Jesus Christ came to this world as the unwearied servant of man's necessity. He "took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses," that He might minister to every need of humanity. Matthew 8:17. The burden of disease and wretchedness and sin He came to remove. It was His mission to bring to men complete restoration; He came to give them health and peace and perfection of character. (EGW, A Call to Stand Apart, p. 59)

MARCH

Of no talent He has given will He require a more strict account than of our time.

(EGW, Christ's Object Lessons, p. 342)

The Lord never compels hurried, complicated movements. Never are His servants to leave one duty marked or incomplete in order to seize hold of another. He who labors in the calmness of the fear of God will not work in a haphazard manner for fear that something will hinder an anticipated plan. (EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 8, p. 189)

APRIL

Jesus cares for each one as though there were not another individual on the face of the earth.

(EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 5, p. 346)

Every action, every purpose, every word is as distinctly marked as though there were only one individual in the whole universe, and all the watchfulness and scrutiny of God were employed on his department. (EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 5, p. 627)

If there had been but one lost soul, Christ would have died for that one.

MAY

John the Baptist was a representative of those living in these last days, to whom God has entrusted sacred truths to present before the people to prepare the way for the second appearing of Christ.

The simplicity of his dress was a standing rebuke to the extravagance and display of the priests and of the people generally. His diet was a rebuke to the indulgence of appetite, and the gluttony that everywhere prevailed. (EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 3, p. 62)

Without the spirit of love, no one can be like Christ. With this living principle in the soul, no one can be like the world. (EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol 2, p. 169)

When we love the world as he has loved it, then for us His mission is accomplished. (EGW, Desire of Ages, p. 641)

From a worldly point of view, money is power, but from the Christian standpoint, love is power. (EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol 4, p. 138)

(EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 1, p. 214)

Be on your guard, for as an angel of light Satan is walking every assembly of Christian workers.

(EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 8, page 294)

The fact that you have been baptized in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit is an assurance that if you will claim their help these powers will help you in every emergency.

SEPTEMBER

His church on earth is to assume divine proportions before the world as a temple built of living stones, each one reflecting light. It is to be the light of the world as a city set on a hill, which cannot be hid. It is built of stones laid close together, stone fitting to stone, making a firm, solid building. Not all the stones are of the same form or shape. Some are large, some are small; but each has its own place to fill. And the value of each stone is determined by the light that it reflects. This is God's plan. He desires all His workers to fill the irappointed places in (EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 8, p. 173)

A Christlike life is the most powerful argument that can be advanced in favor of Christianity, and that a cheap Christian character works more harm in the world than the character of a worldling. (EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 9, page 21; Christian Services, page 26)

NOVEMBER

Everyone who enters the pearly gates of the city of God will enter there as a conqueror, and his greatest conquest will have been the conquest of self.

(EGW, Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 9, p. 182)

The crown of life is placed only upon the brow of the overcomer. There is, for everyone, a earnest, solemn work for God while life lasts. As Satan's power increases and his devices are multiplied, skill, aptness, and sharp generalship should be exercised by those in charge of the flock of God. Not only have we each a work to do for our own souls, but we have also a duty to arouse others to gain eternal life.
